DON'T FORGET....IT'S UNITED WAY TIME AGAIN. PEOPLE
NEED YOUR HELP THIS YEAR MORE THAN EVER. ALL FACULTY
AND STAFF SHOULD CONTACT DEBBIE REYNOLDS BY WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 12, AND LET HER KNOW THE AMOUNT OF YOUR PLEDGE.

SHELTON STATE AT MCFARLAND MALL

Shelton State will hold their annual McFarland Mall days on Saturday, October 22. We would like to have as much participation from the college as possible. If you are interested in being a part of the days' activities, contact Lucy Kubiszyn. This may be the only event of this nature scheduled for this year.

THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE HUMANITIES ANNOUNCED NEW AWARDS PROGRAM

The National Endowment for the Humanities has announced a new grants program for individuals under 21 to carry out their non-credit humanities research projects during the summer of 1984. The Younger Scholars Program will award up to 100 grants Nationally for outstanding research and writing projects in such fields as history, philosophy and the study of literature.

Award recipients will be expected to work full time for nine weeks during the summer, researching and writing a humanities paper under the supervision of a humanities scholar. This is not a financial aid program, and no academic credit will be given.

For more information, contact Younger Scholars Guidelines, Room 426, The National Endowment for the Humanities, Washington, D.C. 20506. Deadline for application is November 15, 1983.

ATTENTION NURSING STUDENTS

If you are planning to apply to the University of Alabama Capstone College of Nursing for spring 1984, you must submit your application by October 15, 1983. All transfer students must arrange an appointment with Ms. Jeanette Latham, Director, Office of Student Services, 206 Student Health Center, Capstone College of Nursing. Call 348-6634 in order to arrange an appointment, receive an application form and evaluation of transfer course work.

TWO ANNIE'S FOR "ANNIE"

Two Annie's will share top billing in Tuscaloosa Community Players' production of the musical by the same name, scheduled to open October 27 for a four-day run at the Bama Theatre. Debbie Mooneyham, Blountville, Alabama, and Tuscaloosa's Wendy Lyda will both play the role of the loveable orphan, according to Paul Looney, artistic director for TCP and Shelton drama instructor. Among the little girls living in the orphanage is Molly, played by Jenny Ryan, daughter of Brenda and Sonny Ryan and granddaughter of Dr. and Mrs. Leo Sumner. Tickets for "Annie" will go on sale on Monday October 17, at the Bama Theatre.

ACADEMIC SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

Academic scholarships are available to students enrolled at Shelton State, and a number of scholarships have been approved for the 1983-84 school year. Students interested in applying for these academic scholarships, which include full tuition for each quarter, should come by the office of the dean of special programs and pick up an application.

The course is designed to meet the needs of fire service supervisors and program managers. The course will address topics in the areas of managerial style and personal performance, time management, stress management and personal professional development planning. The course is designed for fire company officers and unit commanders of any rank responsible for supervising personnel.

TECHNICAL TALK

More news on high tech and robotics at the Technical Division: The robot who is the new visitor in the electronics department has been named "Cuz," according to instructor Don Seales. Cuz is able to pick up an aluminum can and throw it in the garbage can. According to Seales, his arm function is the important aspect as he is able to repeat the same task over and over again....Industrial electricity will have their new equipment operational by the time they move in their new building. Bill Stringfellow, instructor for computerized drafting has his students performing designs and drawings already. Anything from a line drawing to a blueprint can be copied on the machines, according to Stringfellow. And of course, Melvin Corder is busy instructing students in the computerized numerical control program. Six new apple computers have also been purchased for the business education program. Dean Hugh Kynard is in Biloxi, Mississippi, for an industry meeting.
